DETAILED ACTION

Claims 66, 70-74 are pending and examined on merits.

Specification

The objection is withdrawn in view of the amendment.

Claim Objections

This objection is moot.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The rejection of claims rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention is moot because the amended claim and the new claims no longer recite the rejected limitations.

The rejection of claims 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention is withdrawn in view of the amendment and applicant's statement the deposit was made under Budapest treaty and that the all restrictions imposed by the depositor on the availability to the public of the deposited material will be irrevocably removed upon the granting of a patent.

Claims 66 remain rejected and the new claims 73 and 74 are also rejected for reason of record under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Applicant states that the new functional limitation in the claims to describe the common feature of the proteins being claimed was agreed upon by the Office during the interview and argues that claiming 90 % homology is sufficiently similar the Guidelines on Written Description and applicants are in possession of genera under the definition of In re Marzocchi. These arguments have been fully considered but found unpersuasive because the recited functional language describing the claimed genera does not adequately describe the common feature of the generic protein being claimed.

The examiner agreed that the recited functional language will be considered whether it would obviate the rejection of record but did not agree that the language is sufficient to drop the rejection.

Rejection of claims under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention is withdrawn because the declaration shows an expert opinion that one skilled in this art would be likely to believe that assertion that the claimed protein is actually made in cancer cells, based on the disclosed information about mRNA expression.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Rejection of claims under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US Pat. 6,235,679 (filing date of 05-27-1998) is moot because this rejection no longer applies to the amended claim and the new claims.

NEW GROUNDS OF REJECTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 66, 73, and 74 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims appear to say an antibody specifically binds to SEQ ID NO:2 also binds to proteins other than SEQ ID NO:2; this makes the limitation "specifically" confusing. If the antibody binds specifically SEQ ID NO:2, how could it also binds to other protein?

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 70-72 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 1642

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
